

Do you work with or have a child with Dyspraxia/DCD and would like some ideas to support their gross and fine motor skills?

If so, then why not attend this fun, practical and informative 1 day workshop led by Sharon Drew.

Sharon Drew is an international trainer and a well known author of many practical resources for schools and therapists in the UK.

On: Thursday 15th November, 2018

At: Moycarkey-Borris Community Centre, Littleton

Time: 9.00 - 3.00pm

Tea & Coffee / Light Lunch included.

Cost: €20.00 (plus online booking fee)

Registration is now online

<http://www.tipperarysports.ie/>

Participants must be over 18

For further information & to register, please contact Tipperary Sports Partnership on 067-44888 or email: ecullinan@tipperarysports.ie

This workshop is suitable for parents, teachers, SNA's and O.T's, other professionals, sports clubs. During the workshop you can:

- ◆ Learn more about Dyspraxia/DCD, Smart Moves Motor Skills Programme
- ◆ Participate in a selection of gross motor games & activities using low cost/no cost resources to help fine motor skills
- ◆ Explore practical solutions to common gross and fine motor difficulties
- ◆ Meet others and share your experiences and ideas

Tipperary Dyspraxia Association

SMART MOVES—Supporting Gross Motor Skills and fine Motor skills for Children with Dyspraxia